

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY RESEARCH FOUNDATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR MISCELLANEOUS INCOME DISBURSEMENT REQUEST

READ THIS BEFORE COMPLETING FORMS

These forms are to be used to pay for prizes, awards, gifts, referees, umpires, judges, short-term guest lecturers, entertainers and royalties.

A guest lecturer is defined as "a recognized expert in a particular discipline, engaged to lecture a group, generally to supplement the lectures of the regular instructor". The lecturer's services must be extended over a short duration (one or two days, normally). Lecturers rendering services for more than five days are generally considered to be employees and must be paid through the regular payroll.

THIS FORM SHOULD NOT BE USED IF YOU ARE AN EMPLOYEE OF THE SDSU RESEARCH FOUNDATION.

THESE FORMS MAY NOT BE USED TO PAY INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS EXCEPT FOR REFEREES, UMPIRES, JUDGES, SHORT-TERM GUEST LECTURERS OR ENTERTAINERS.

(Use the SDSURF "Independent Contractor Payment Authorization Request & Agreement Form" for payments to other independent contractors).

Individuals receiving payments through the use of these forms are acting on an independent basis and are not employees of SDSU Foundation. The individual is fully responsible for any taxes relating to the amounts paid. SDSU Foundation will only withhold federal or California personal income taxes if required by government regulations (i.e. non-resident or "back-up" withholding).

SDSU Foundation will track all payments and will issue a form "1099-MISC" at the calendar year end, in accordance with IRS guidelines.
